ArtQuilt Elements, formerly ArtQuilts at the Sedgwick (AQatS) is now a biennial juried exhibition, celebrating its eighth show. In April and May 2008, AQE will be presented at the Wayne Art Center.

Mission Statement

The mission of AQE is to create an East Coast venue for art quilts that will promote the contemporary quilt as an art form. In this exhibition we present contemporary quilts that reflect or embrace original, unique and innovative methods incorporating impressive craftsmanship and technical prowess.

The Wayne Art Center

For 76 years the Wayne Art Center has been enriching the cultural needs of the community through the arts. Today, WAC's mission has three parts: offering instruction in the visual and performing arts for artists of all ages and ability levels; presenting exhibitions of the work of professional artists as well as students and faculty; and reaching out to bring art to underserved audiences, including those with special needs. An exciting $5 million renovation and expansion project is nearing completion. The new 27,000 square foot Wayne Art Center – with state-of-the-art painting, ceramic and sculpture studios, a second exhibition gallery, gallery shop and music studios – will celebrate its Grand Opening in October 2007.

Wayne is located 20 miles from downtown Philadelphia.

Dear Friends,

We are pleased to announce that ArtQuilts at the Sedgwick has a new name and location. ArtQuilt Elements will be held at the Wayne Art Center, with the Committee working hand in hand with the enthusiastic staff at the WAC. Further details are provided in the prospectus.

The best news is that we have twice the gallery space and will be jurying in many more quilts than in previous years.

This could be your year to have a quilt in this internationally known show! We look forward to receiving your prospectus!
