One Thousand Cranes for Peace

Wednesday, July 2nd, 12:15 PM
Origami Art

Join origami artist, Malia Hiyashita-Knight to help us make 1,000 origami cranes. Part of a "Cranes for Peace" project, inspired by the story, Sadako and the Thousand Cranes, the paper cranes will be hung at Central Baptist Church in Wayne in commemoration of Hiroshima/Nagasaki Week August 3-10.

African Music & Stories

Wednesday, July 30th, 12:15 PM
With Bill Marconi

In a language we all share, music, join us on a trip to Africa! Bill Marconi will demonstrate a multitude of percussion instruments and relate stories of their history and importance in the celebrations of Africa. All will be actively involved.

Trickster's Tales

Thursday, July 17th, 12:15 PM
Tucker's Tales Puppet Theatre

The trail to trickery can be a slippery road indeed! Join us as Tuckers' Tales Puppet Theatre from Philadelphia presents four very amusing trickster stories from around the world. Guaranteed to amuse children of all ages!

Mexican Fiesta

Wednesday, August 13th, 6:30-8PM
Crafts and Costumes

Join us for a festive evening of music, dancing and crafts. We will make our own Mexican inspired instruments and costumes. Keep an eye out for our piñata filled with treats. Light refreshments will be served.

Our End of Camp Celebration!

Friday, August 22nd, 3:00 PM
Ol' Fashioned American Picnic

Hotdogs on the grill, sliced watermelon and lemonade. Wear your swimsuits and bring a towel. We'll be jumping through the sprinklers and celebrating the end of another fun summer at the Wayne Art Center!
