

Summer Entertainment Series
Wayne Art Center presents a free Family Entertainment Series during the summer for campers and their families. Guest artists share their artistic talents and experiences with the community.

Scholarships
Our goal is for summer art camp to be accessible to everyone. A limited number of scholarships are available for those who qualify.

Private Art & Music Lessons
Schedule additional lessons that can be customized to your child's availability and interests.

Summer Art Camp T-Shirt
Campers receive a free camp t-shirt to design for each class in which they enroll.

Early Drop Off & Lunch Bunch
Early Drop Off (9:00 - 9:30 am) and Lunch Bunch (12:00 - 12:30 pm) allow for flexible schedules.

Friday Art Shows
Camper artwork is featured at the end of each camp session, letting campers share their creations with family and friends.

Theatrical Productions
Join us in one of our beautiful galleries throughout the summer as drama classes present innovative theater productions.

For more information about our Summer Art Camp visit wayneart.org/camp or call 610-688-3553.

teen volunteers needed!

If you love art and enjoy working with children, Wayne Art Center invites you to apply to be a WAC volunteer this summer. Teen volunteers assist with art projects, help in the kitchen and engage with campers throughout the day.

To be considered for a volunteer position, interested individuals ages 14-17 may complete an online application at wayneart.org/volunteer-form or contact Tessa Downs at volunteer@wayneart.org for more information.

summer membership

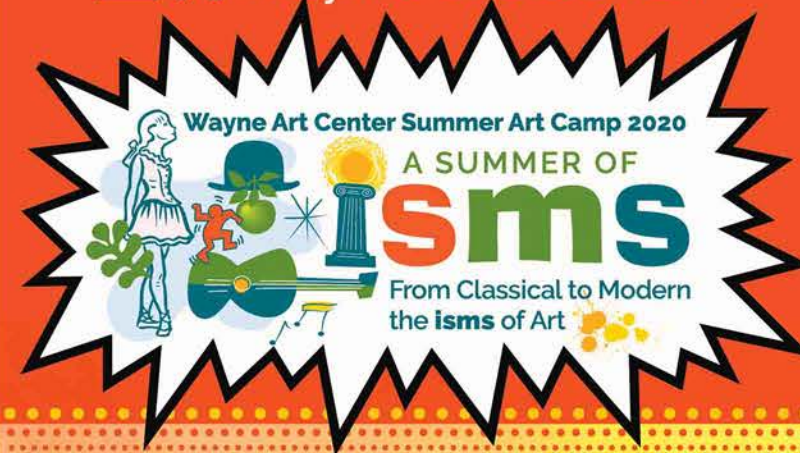

WAC is member-supported. Current membership required to enroll.
